

Position: Seasonal workers

Location: BELGIUM, Flanders region

The Flemish public employment service (VDAB) in collaboration with the Boerenbond, professional organization of agricultural entrepreneurs in Flanders and East Belgium, and EURES Networking are looking for seasonal workers - with knowledge of English - to work in Flanders.

Required profile:

- No prior knowledge or studies required.
- Being flexible and motivated.
- Suitability for (often) repetitive physical work: a good physical condition is required, especially when picking from the ground.
- A sense of accuracy: an eye for quality and safety.
- Stick to rules and agreements - follow work instructions.
- Working in a team.
- Working with people from other origins/countries.
- The work is done in the open air or in a greenhouse.
- You will arrange and pay your transport to Belgium.

Offer:

- This is general information for employment as a seasonal worker (SW) in horticulture. These are minimum standards, employers can always provide more but not less.
- In 2022, 100 working days are allowed for SW. This is a typical contract in horticulture.
- This concerns day contracts. Seasonal workers work with day contracts.
- The minimum hourly wage in 2022: € 9.69 gross/hour.
- Working hours in the horticultural sector are normally 38 hours/week. More hours can be worked in season: up to 11 hours /day and up to 50 hours /week. All hours worked are paid at the normal hourly wage.

Lodging

- In many cases, the employer provides accommodation. The accommodation must meet certain standards (floor space, heating, sanitary facilities, etc.).
- The employer may charge a monthly rent for the stay in the lodging. Prices of rent can be different, depending if general costs (water, electricity, internet, ...) are included in the rent or not.
