

Position: Truck Driver

Location: Bleiswijk, Waddinxveen or Sassenheim in the Netherlands

Bentvelzen Transport, Bleiswijk, the Netherlands, is looking for truckdrivers.

Bentvelzen Transport is a medium-sized transport company with a focus on retail distribution for various supermarket chains. With thirty of our own tractor/trailer combinations, we transport more than a million roll containers to various stores in the Netherlands every year. In addition, we drive more than 25 units for an international freight company. These are fixed routes, both nationally and internationally, and this transport is carried out by railcar, tractor-trailer and combinations. We also drive for 1 of the largest waste processors in our country. We do this with 2 walking floors and various motor vehicles for the "container outlet".

Main tasks / responsibilities

- We are looking for afternoon and evening drivers for Bleiswijk. This concerns trips to supermarkets in the east of the country, so you have to like a bit of steering!
- For Waddinxveen we are looking for night drivers with ADR. This concerns transport with swap bodies and also longer routes.
- As a truck driver you ensure correct and timely delivery of the goods to the branches of our customer. You supply the supermarket branches with food from the distribution center.
- You drive various regional routes with a tractor/trailer. Loading and unloading with roll containers at the DC and at the branches is also part of your job! The orders are often heavy so it is important that you are in good physical condition!
- You also take care of the associated administration. The supermarkets you supply are your customers and you are partly responsible for delivering the right amount of goods at the right time, in which you act as a host towards the branches. While driving, safety and 'the new driving' are at the top of your priority list.

Required profile:

- You are in possession of a CE driving license with Code 95 (possibility of further training Code 95) and a valid driver card (and possibly ADR) OR a C driving license and willingness to learn
- You have at least 1 year of driving experience with a trailer
- You can work independently as well as in a team
- You are flexible
- English (basic and willingness to learn)
