

Position: Farmworkers

Location: Norway (northern Norway – Karasjok)

With the collaboration of EURES Norway (NAV) and EURES Portugal, a small dairy farm in northern Norway, just outside the village of Karasjok, close to the border with Finland, is looking for Farmworkers.

The employer is looking for 1-2 people who can take care of the cowbarn, do other farm work and drive a tractor.

Main tasks:

The working day in the cowbarn is divided into two parts with morning and evening work on the same day. The work is on weekdays and weekends.

The worker has to work independently, take responsibility and take care of the cowbarn. The worker will do the daily tasks in the cowbarn and stable. It will be the normal work, milking, feeding, cleaning, see if a cow is sick or in heat, contact the veterinarian and assist him, take care of the cow when it is giving birth and after and other things that might show up with the animals or machines.

It will also be other work like fencing, tractor driving, cleaning, repairs and all other kind of work that exist on a farm.

Required profile:

- You need to have experience from farmwork and milking and/or experience fixing machines and equipment
- Tractor driving license
- Good level of English language or Norwegian language
- You must have a class B driver's license and your own car to get to and from work

The company offers:

- Temporary Contract 1 year, with very good possibilities for a longer period
- 1 Fulltime position and 1 Part-time position (50%). A fulltime position is 37,5 hours pr week
- Negotiable salary, starting at 178 NOK (gross) per hour, according to proven skills and experience
- Employer is assisting with housing nearby the farm, not free accommodation. Price for housing is depending on the size/type of preferred accommodation. Karasjok is a cheap area to rent in comparison with most parts of Norway.
